III. CORRECT ALL ERRORS IN AGREEMENT IN THE FOLLOWING PARAGRAPHS.

a) Two people left a 15-mile-long trail of doughnuts after they took a donut truck from a parking lot and fled, police said Thursday. The truck were parked at a convenience store with its rear doors open and its engine running while a deliveryman carried doughnuts inside, said a Slide 11 police spokesman. Two suspects hopped in the truck and sped off to the nearby town of Lacombe, with doughnuts spilling out along the way, he said. They abandoned the truck when they was spotted by police responding to reports of a dangerous driver who were losing his doughnuts. A passenger were captured, but the driver, whose name were not released, ran away.

Their motive for taking the truck filled with donuts were unclear.

"I don't know if it were a need for transportation or if they just had the munchies," the police said.

b) A wife are complaining about her husband spending all his time at the local tavern, so one night he take her along with him.

"What'll ya have?" he ask.
